

You're invited to join the American Spice Trade Association's

2025 ANNUAL MEETING & EXHIBITS

APRIL 8-10 | SAVANNAH, GEORGIA

Convene with U.S. spice trade professionals to experience ASTA's unrivaled education while forging business connections with key companies and industry experts at this year's Annual Meeting & Exhibits. This is the premier opportunity to:

- Access ASTA's exceptional educational programming focused on forecasting the future of the U.S. spice industry, exploring critical topics such as the rapidly evolving regulatory and economic landscape, climate, the future of food and agriculture, and the impact of AI on the spice industry.
- Explore the current U.S. supply chain environment with expert-led sessions on pressing issues like freight costs and tariffs, offering practical strategies to navigate these turbulent times at the Supply Chain Symposium.
- Connect with new and longtime U.S.-based colleagues and enjoy ASTA's unique networking events – from golf and tennis tournaments, garden games, and a ghost tour, to a Southern hospitality-inspired welcome reception and the Roaring Twenties-themed Speakeasy, all designed to facilitate strong connections and lasting industry relationships.
- Showcase your brand at the event's exhibits, where suppliers and servicers can meet with hundreds of spice professionals across the international and stateside supply chain.

With expert-led sessions and engaging networking experiences, the ASTA Annual Meeting is the perfect opportunity to stay ahead of the curve and build lasting connections. Secure your spot by registering online before Wednesday, April 2!
